

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BALTIMORE BUSINESS JOURNAL ONCE AGAIN NAMES
M HAYES IN ANNUAL LISTING
OF LARGEST WOMAN-OWNED BUSINESSES FOR 2010

Hunt Valley, Maryland – August 7, 2010: Baltimore Business Journal recently named M Hayes as one of the largest woman-owned businesses in the Baltimore area in the August 7th edition. Out of 50 businesses, M Hayes was ranked 9th based on 2009 revenue.

In business for twelve years, M Hayes began their managed care operations in 1999. “We’ve grown to national capabilities and have been awarded multiple national contracts with the largest payers in workers compensation,” says Melinda Hayes, President and Chief Executive Officer. “We are proud to be recognized by the BBJ and are looking forward to continued growth in our region as well as countrywide.”

M Hayes is a leading managed care company, providing nationwide services to insurance companies, third party administrators, and self-insured entities. We are known for our innovativeness and for being meaningfully different: that brings best solutions for our clients. We deliver telephonic and field medical case management, including catastrophic and bilingual, utilization review, vocational case management, interpretation and translation, life care planning, and litigation management services to over 250 clients that represent predominately workers' compensation insurance risk.
