

M Hayes Recognizes "National Case Management Week: October 9-15, 2011"

M Hayes joins in the recognition of CM Week as our professional services staff provides telephonic and field case management services across the United States by the best case management professionals in the industry. We appreciate each of our staff-- medical and vocational case management staff! This week in celebration our management team has some coordinated some great recognition:

- M Hayes Intranet Home Page displays the Week of Celebration
- Treasure Hunt via our M Hayes Intranet with great prizes
- A special thank you gift for each of our employed staff
- Highlights of our case management teams via internal emails throughout the entire week

M Hayes is proud to represent the case management industry with the best case managers across the nation. Thank you M Hayes Case Managers!
